

Program

of the 3rd Transnational staff meeting of the Erasmus+ Project "The school we like to learn in" in Varaždin (Croatia)

21st to 27th May 2017

Goals: Focus on synthesis of results across the projects and its impacts on all the involved parties and wider education community. Working on the project's final report, deciding on the most efficient dissemination activities, evaluating the achieved results.

21st May : Arrival

22nd May:

Morning session: Presentation and summarising of the methodological work done during both project years. Discussion about opportunities and channels of sharing and further using of the created materials.

Afternoon session: Analyzing of the management experience, information collecting and evaluation about success samples and difficulties organising local and international activities and involving teachers and students into project work.

23rd May:

Morning session: Evaluation of the provided methodology for student's involvement into creation of a more friendly school environment; collecting data, their evaluation, sharing materials. Collecting of the coordinators' methodology, tips and comments on innovative approaches.

Afternoon session: Analyzing and summarizing of the methodological work done during both project years in early school leaving preventing in different subjects in our schools. Discussion about opportunities of sharing dissemination and further using of the created materials.

24th May:

Morning session: : Meeting with local education authorities of Varaždin county, education policy in Varaždin county, discussion about the EU education project's experience, analyzing of the existing experience.

Afternoon session: Project's output evaluation, discussion and suggestions for further work: final video, project magazines, interactive presentations, best practice samples, teachers' training materials, project diaries, virtual joint Dropbox office materials.

25th May:

Morning session: Actualization of the project dissemination plan, target groups and dissemination channels, deciding about the effective use of the projects results.

Afternoon session: Evaluation and exchange of the created materials in both, educational and methodological parts. Monitoring the process of fulfilling the goals of the project. Discussion and decisions about the last steps for completing the project.

26th May:

Morning session: Preparation work for the final report. Requirements and experience working with Mobility Tool.

Afternoon session: Evaluation/Discussion/Questions&Answers, Conclusions.

27th May: Departure