

Harvest feast

Giving thanks for the fruits of the soil

It is held every year in October, on school, county and state level.

It is presented as an exhibition. On every level students bring their products such as bread in many different shapes and sizes.

School exhibition

Each class of food technology technicians and nutrition technicians is present at their exhibition table.

The students exhibit bakery products that they have made themselves, various ornaments of dry flowers, grain, fruits, vegetables and other fruits of the earth.

Students' art and literary works related to the subject are exhibited on the school display board
